NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS

SAFETY, BEHAVIOR and LIABILITY

The safety of the dog is our primary concern. By entering this trial, exhibitors acknowledge that they are familiar with the rules and regulations of this sport, and that their dogs are familiar with and able to perform all searches safely. It is expressly understood that exhibitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and/or children. Any exhibitor whose dogs and/or children create an unnecessary disturbance or repeatedly engage in unsafe or disruptive behavior may, at the discretion of the trial committee, be asked to leave the show site. In such a case, no refund of any fees paid will be made. The American Kennel Club, Suburban Dog Training Club, Denise Cooper (host) and any agents, employees etc. will assume no responsibilities for any loss, damage or injury sustained by exhibitors or handlers, or to any of their dogs or property and further assumes no responsibility for injury to children. The American Kennel Club, Suburban Dog Training Club, Denise Cooper (host) and any agents, employees etc. reserve the right to decline entries for cause and may remove any dog on account of aggression. No one shall have any recourse or claim against the American Kennel Club, Suburban Dog Training Club, Denise Cooper (host) and any agents, employees etc. or any official thereof. Dogs will remain in each staging area until instructed to move by the stewards.

Collars, Leashes and Harnesses - Dogs may wear slip collars, buckle collars, and Martingales in the AKC Fetch test. They may not wear prong collars, e-collars, head collars, muzzles, or body harnesses. Leashes should be 4 ft. to 6 ft. long and should be made of fabric, leather or biothane. All dogs must be on leash at all times, and retractable leashes may not be used when on trial grounds. Dogs must enter and exit the test area with the leash attached to the collar, including when waiting in the test area before and after their retrieve. Dogs must only use the potty area in the front of the parking lot. Walking behind the building is exclusively for getting to the trial area

Refunds - No entry fee will be refunded if the trial cannot open or be completed by reason of riots, civil disturbances, fire, an act of God, public emergency, act of a public enemy, or any other cause beyond the control of the organizing committee. No entry fee will be refunded in the event a dog is absent, disqualified, excused, or barred from competition by the action of the Trial Committee. Dogs pulled after closing because of injury or other medical condition are eligible for a refund only with a veterinarian's note.

Bitches in season will be refunded the full entry fee with a veterinarian's note for all but one run per day. Notification in writing must be given to the trial secretary no later than one half hour prior to the start of the first class of the day of the trial. Bitches in season may be tested as the last dog(s) at the end of the day. If there are two events on one day, a bitch in season may only be tested as the last dog in the last event. Bitches in season should not be waiting in the area with other dogs.

Excusals - The Owner of each dog is solely responsible for having it ready at the search area when it is to be judged. The Club has no responsibility to provide service through a public address system or stewards or runners for the purpose of calling or locating dogs that are not brought into the ring when required. If a dog shows signs of aggression, it is Disqualified. An excusal is used in situations such as when the handler requests to be excused because the handler is not feeling well, does not want to proceed with the test, etc. Other examples include a dog that may also be excused by the judge for being out of control (e.g., running around the course), urinating or defecating on the course, being so fearful it will not work, or simply not being trained to perform the test items. Dogs may be excused from the Fetch test or test area by a judge for excessively delaying during the test, being found unfit to compete, interference with the test in progress by the owner or handler, or not being present when called to be tested. Dogs must be given 5 minutes grace time to arrive at the test area when called.

Claims will be arbitrated as set forth on the Official AKC Entry Form for this event.

Exhibitors should follow their veterinarian's recommendation to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations.

RINGSIDE

Judges are not required to wait for dogs. The Owner of each dog is solely responsible for having it ready at the search area when it is to be judged. The Club has no responsibility to provide service through a public address system or stewards or runners for the purpose of calling or locating dogs that are not brought into the ring when required.
